LOVE'S GREETING.

BY REBECCA CAMERON.

You ask how I would greet you:
Love, why ask?
Can I paint a rapture in mere words,
Count heart beats as a task?
I only know the sight of you would be
The glad surprise
That the first glimpse of light and flower
Would be
To long blind eyes.
But ah! what words are deep enough to hold
The rapture of a hush
In which they'd watch the sunset's gold,
Or rosy dawn's dewy blush?
I only know the sight of you would be
As dew to flowers
That drooping on their stems have hung,
Through noontide hours.
But, yet, I cannot paint in words
The joy that thrills Throughout each fragrant heart, as drop by drop
Each chalice fills.
And so my joy at meeting you Would pass the reach Of words in any tongue that's known—
All powers of speech.
But though I cannot tell, I think perhaps
That I could show
Just how I'd greet you if you came,
So if you care to know.
There stretches out between us, dear,
No bridgeless space,
And your question were best answered
Face unto face!

ADVICE TO MOTHERS.

Are you disturbed at night and broken of your rest by a sick child suffering and crying with pain of cutting teeth? If so send at once and get a bottle of Mrs. Winslow's Soothing Syrup for Children Teething. It's value is incalculable.
It will relieve the poor little sufferer immediately. Depend upon it, mothers, there is no mistake about it. It cures dysentery and diarrhoea, regulates the stomach and bowels, cures colic and softens the gums, reduces inflammation, and gives tone and energy to the whole system. Mrs. Winslow's Soothing Syrup for Children Teething is pleasant to the taste, and is the prescription of one of the oldest and best female physicians and nurses in the United States, and is for sale by all druggists throughout the world. Price 25 cents a bottle,

DR. F. S. HARRIS.

Dental Surgeon.

HENDERSON, N. C.

Would respectfully announce to his friends and patrons that he has had to discontinue the practice away from his office, and may always be found in place, schedules convenient for those living on the line of the railway to come to his office, and the superior facilities for work in a well furnished office, will make it greatly to their advantage to come.
It is always best to make engagements before hand, if there is any considerable quantity of work to be done—especially if living at some distance.
Very respectfully,
F. S. HARRIS, Dentist.

AN OLD MERCHANT
IN A NEW STORE with NEW GOODS.

Out of the depths of chaos and confusion, caused by the late disastrous fire, I have risen Phoenix like from its ashes and am again doing a general Merchandise business, SELLING GOODS

CHEAPER THAN EVER.

Having recently moved into the store house on the corner of Garnet and Railroad square formerly used as the hardware store, with greatly increased facilities—more house room and a large and well selected stock of goods—I am prepared to OFFER SUCH

BARGAINS

As I have not been able to do heretofore. My stock consists of everything in the line of Dry Goods, Clothing, Notions, Hats, Caps, Boots, and Shoes, Groceries, Provisions, &c., &c., all of which will be sold as cheap as cheaper than the same goods can be bought elsewhere.

I am adding to my stock daily, and am determined to keep fully abreast of the times.

Call and see me at my new store, examine goods and ask prices, and be convinced that I am offering BIG BARGAINS SURE ENOUGH.

VERY RESPECTFULLY,

W. F. ROWLAND,

HENDERSON, N. C.

STILL TO THE FRONT!

ARE THE

Old Established Merchants,

J. H. Lassiter & Son,

WITH ONE OF THE LARGEST

Assortments of GENERAL MERCHANDISE ever brought to this town. Everything you can think of from a paper of pins to a fine suit of clothes; from a pound of coffee to a whole year's supply of provisions. We are now receiving a full line of new and stylish

SPRING AND SUMMER GOODS

Of every description, which we propose to sell at very reasonable figures. Our stock of Dry Goods, Clothing, Ladies' Dress Goods, Fine Shoes, Boots, Hats, choice Family Groceries, Provisions, Farming Implements, &c., &c., is large and complete in every respect.

To make room for new goods now arriving daily, we must reduce our present stock, and wish to fix the fact clearly in your mind that we are offering

EXTRA low BARGAINS

In all heavy goods for winter service. These goods must be disposed of and will be sold at LOWEST CASH PRICES. Such favorable inducements have not been offered purchasers in Vance county as we are now making.

An examination of our stock is respectfully invited.
